

Please leave New Jersey's DO NOT CALL law the way it is. It has worked very well and the calls I receive now are only from businesses and organizations that I want deal with anyway. I can always contact the others on my own if I choose. This decision should rest within the state and I wish we had a similar law regarding e-mails.